

One More Story

Roger Hammer

Voice

Guitar

Now do you ever wake up dreamin' That it's a-

-bout to be all over, said and done, no more Well don't you worry, it's not over

Oh no, because there's always one more story, one more story to go

2. And do you ever get the feelin' that nothing good could ever happen
To stop you feelin' so low
Well don't you worry, it's not over
Because there's always one more story to go
3. Now you've been looking for your freedom but you're afraid that when you find it
There'll be nowhere else to go
Well don't you worry, it's not over
Because there's always one more story to go
4. And now you think you've finally made it, that all your dues are finally paid up
And there's nothing more that you owe
Well don't you worry, it's not over
Because there's always one more story to go
